

We can't seriously be thinking about letting the NAB control what we hear? We can't allow the NAB to bully the satellite systems into a small whimper in the corner of the room. Please let XM and Sirius have the freedom that our country is based on. Lets not let more regulation destroy our beautiful country and its free market system.